

Standard College Electronic-Book (E-book) Policy

To support student success and ensure students have access to quality learning resources, Standard College provides Electronic books (E-books), along with other electronic learning resources, to students in each course in the Practical Nursing Program and the LPN to RN Transition Program. The E-book is a full textbook in electronic form that can be read online.